

ERRATA

In the previous issue of Anthropologica (Number 2, 1956) there were several typographical errors in the article "Leadership among the Northeastern Athabascans" by June Helm MacNeish, pp. 131-163. The corrections are as follows:

Page	Line
131	8	for	especially as manifested
		read	especially as manifested
132	14	for	organization may be well surmised
		read	organization may well be surmised
136	10-11	for	The number of families involved might range from two or three (Petitot 1891, p. 76) to perhaps a dozen.
		read	The number of families involved might range from two or three (e.g., Richardson, 1851, vol. 2, p. 76) to perhaps a dozen (e.g., Petitot 1891, passim ).
140	6	for	Though not unique (see 4)
		read	Though not unique (see Field, n.d.)
148	11	for	(Franklin, p. 270); (1819-20-21-22).
		read	(Franklin, n.d., p. 270)
149	8	for	the universality of leader figure
		read	the universality of the leader figure
149	31	for	accord him, "demand right" (see 10)
		read	accord him "demand right" (see Hoebel, 1954)

Page	Line
149	34	for	established demanding right
		read	established demand right
153	43	for	"superior knowledge of competency"
		read	superior knowledge and competency
155	3-4	for	the Chippewayan (North- eastern Athabascan tribes
		read	the Chippewayan (North- eastern Athabascan) tribes
156	9	for	(McLean, p. 86)
		read	(Murdock, p. 86)
157	24-25	for	most of the nineteenth century non-professional observers
		read	most of them nineteenth century non-professional observers